Let's Go Outside

Student A: Hello Friend! What do you like to do to have fun?

Student B: I always play soccer after school, but my classmates love playing chess.

Student A: I sometimes play soccer too, but I enjoy playing tennis.

Student B: Hmmm! Tennis is a nice sport. It improves your ability to concentrate.

Student A: Yes! It is, and also improves your mood.

Student B: Hey, look over there! Are they playing tennis?

Student A: Yes, they are. Let's go and have fun.

Student B: Yes! Let's make the game more fun than a barrel of monkeys.

Indoor Fun on a Rainy Day

Student A: Oh no! It is raining today.

Student B: What can we do in our break?

Student A: Ah, I suggest you play cards.

Student B: I never play cards.

Student A: I can teach you how to play it.

Student B: I will love to. Let's go!

Student A: Okay! First, shuffle the cards. Then deal the cards and fix them in your hand...

Student B: Sorry. I'm out! Too complicated.
