Unit 1 2019

Family Chores	Ben: Hello, Aaron Aaron: Hi Ben! Ben: Who does the chores in your house? Aaron: We all do chores in my house. My dad always cooks dinner, my brother cleans the house every day, and my mom sets the table. Ben: Do you help with the chores at your house? Aaron: Yes, I do. I sweep and mop the floor. Sometimes I help my mom write a “to do list” of the chores we need to do. What chores do you do? Ben: I don’t like to mop. I sometimes sweep the floor, but I usually wash the dishes. Aaron: It’s important for everyone in the family to do chores in the house. Ben: Definitely, on Saturdays our whole family works together to clean the house.
Things I like to Do to Help my Family	Meg: What do you like to do in your house to help your family? Liv: I like to wash the dishes, but I don’t like to mop the floor. What about you? Meg: I like to make my bed, but I don’t like to sweep the floor. Liv: My dad likes to sweep and clean the house, but he doesn’t like to wash the dishes. Meg: My sister always washes the dishes. I’m happy she washes the dishes, because washing dishes is my least favorite chore. Liv: I enjoy washing the dishes. My younger brother usually mops the floor while I wash the dishes, then we both help clean around the house. Meg: Sounds like you have a good system with him! Liv: Definitely! We all help each other to keep the house clean and organized.

Can you Help me?	Sarah: Can you help me? Christian: Of course! What do you need help with? Sarah: I need the broom and the mop. Can you please get them for me? Christian: Sure! Where are they? Sarah: The mop is in the kitchen, and the broom is in my bedroom. Christian: Here they are! Sarah: Perfect, thank you! Christian: My pleasure.
Where is the Broom?	Matt: Where is the dustpan? Taylor: I think it is next to the garbage can. Matt: Can you please pass it to me? Taylor: Of course! Do you know where the broom is? Matt: It is in the kitchen, next to the refrigerator. Taylor: Perfect. I need to wash some clothing too, where do you keep the washing machine? Matt: The washing machine is also in the kitchen, and the laundry detergent is next to it on the floor. Taylor: Thank you!
