Family Celebrations in Costa Rica Mini Book

My tita Ana loves
family celebrations.
She enjoys
birthdays, Christmas,
Holy Week, New Year's day, Mother's day, Father's day and Independence day.

Birthdays

We are celebrating
my aunt Lilly's
birthday with a
surprise party.
Everybody has a role to do to get ready for the
birthday party.

Tita Ana is making
rice with chicken,
salad and french
fries.

My uncle Minor is buying the cake
and candles.

My dad Juan José is going to take
pictures and put on
some music.

My aunt Yaudy
is doing the
decoration
with hats,
balloons and a
piñata.

Tito Alfonso
has a nice gift
for aunt Lilly.

My uncle Helberth
is singing karaoke
and happy
birthday.

Holy Week

Holy week is tita Ana's favorite celebration. She loves to cook different dishes such as: rice pudding (arroz con leche), chiverre honey, coconut honey, fish soup, heart of palm (palmito) picadillo.

She enjoys
seeing all the family eating
and watching
movies on the television.

Mother's Day

On August 15th, Costa Rica celebrates Mother's day and tita Ana loves this celebration.

The family gets together and brings her flowers and gifts.

She is very happy
because she gets
phone calls and
cards from friends
in the United States.

She likes to take pictures to share with her friends and remember the good times.

Father's Day

On Father's day tita Ana likes to cook a
big lunch.

All the children make cards and gifts for all the fathers in the family.

Tita Ana takes pictures of her happy family,
laughing and having fun
with her cell phone.

Later, she sends messages of
unforgettable pictures
and new memories.

Independence Day

Independence Day in Costa Rica is a big celebration. It is on September 15th. Tita Ana likes to see the parades.

She also takes pictures of me
wearing the typical
dress she made.

She enjoys
watching the
typical dances
and listening
to the bands
playing typical
music.

Christmas

At Christmas time my tita likes to make tamales and everybody in the family can help.

My aunt Lilly
enjoys
decorating the
house and
putting gifts
under the tree.

On Christmas
Eve, we sing
Christmas
songs. We have a family
dinner and
exchange
gifts.

The
end
